

BLUESTONE OLD ADELAIDE

Split Face Bookleaf Blocks

The autumn tones and rugged finish allows this stone to carry on the tradition of South Australia's heritage buildings making it ideal for restoration and new projects capturing old world charm. Used widely in residential and commercial designs this stone suits a variety of architectural styles. This type of stone can be used for, but not limited to, low walls, residential facades, and cascading water features.

GALLERY IMAGES

Natural stone blocks are nominally between 95-110mm thick and are used like a brick as a construction element. Please note minimum quantities and extended lead times may apply, contact us for more information.